Dear Mary,

I guess saying Judy was prettier was not enough, and I've reached the reluctant conclusion she has taken offense, for she hasn't replied. Nor has Drake. Nor Crossett.

Nor am I a bit surprised, 'cause I'm a nasty.

I think I forgot to tell you I asked Bud's secretary to send you a copy of the complaint in my suit for the court record in the Ray extradition case. I was reminded of this a few minutes ago when I got a phone call informing me AP has finally carried a story on it.

Which is pretty good, considering the news is a week old.

Under the law they have 60 days to reply, but we can ask for immediate trial after 20 days. We may not get it, but we have that right. The law does provide that such a case goes to the top of the docket.

So, it shouldn't be too long.

Nor too long before there are more.

But, I do wonder why AP ignored the story for a week, then carried it.

Hope your boy is coming along well.

Sincerely,
